Q: What happened to the other locations?

In January 2025, following the retirement of our parents, we sold off FOUR locations and EIGHT food trucks. Now, we are focused on our original catering and takeout location in Gaithersburg (this year marks ten years)

Q: Where are Fred & Nancy, the owners?

They are officially retired and currently spending most of their time between Maryland and California.

After the fall of the Shah in Iran, they spent much of their life in Europe before eventually settling in the U.S. They plan to move to Spain in a few years...

Q: Do you still donate to the community?

Yes—and it's one of our proudest traditions. We donate a portion of every sale to local causes and host holiday food drives. Prior to our downsizing, we donated over $30,000 worth of food to people in need all over the county.

Q: Where is Cameron, the owners son?

Cameron splits his time between Maryland and Costa Rica. Costa Rica is his primary residence, he stays actively involved in the business and is frequently back and forth.
